

Australian Postgraduate Research Student Visa

International students who have been accepted to study in a registered master degree by research or a doctoral degree are required to hold an Australian Postgraduate Research Student visa.

Postgraduate Research Student Visa Eligibility Assessment

The Free Visa Eligibility Assessment from Migration Expert lets you know if you meet the basic requirements to apply for a Postgraduate Research Student visa to Australia. To ensure that your assessment gives you a realistic result, ensure that the information you provide is as accurate as possible.

Australian Postgraduate Research Student Visa Basic Requirements

To be eligible to apply for an Australian Postgraduate Research Student visa, applicants are required to:

- * Be enrolled in a registered postgraduate research course;
- * Have adequate English language ability;
- * Have financial means to support themselves; and
- * Obtain overseas student health insurance cover for the duration of their stay in Australia.

Australian Postgraduate Research Student Visa Entitlements

An Australian Postgraduate Research Student visa is a temporary visa valid for the duration of the postgraduate research course. Successful applicants and holders of an Australian Postgraduate Research Student visa are permitted to work up to 20 hours per week during term and unlimitedly during term breaks

